HONGKONG, FEBRUARY 26th, 1878.

WE are glad to see that it is proposed pass an Ordinanco for the survey and regulation of steamships in and leaving this Colony, having in part the prevention of such entastrophes as that which recently occurred on board the steamship Yesso with such disastrous results. We have before insisted upon the importance of this measure, but "necessity is the section of the British steamer Golden Horn. mother of invention," and it is doubtful whether, imperfect as it appears to us in some particulars, we should have heard of the boat had got about 400 yards from the correspondent "The Steamship Survey and Regulation Or. Hongkong, February 25th, 1878.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "DAILY PRESS. Srg. I have rend with considerable interest the letter of "A Chinese" in your issue of yesterday on the above question. The writer is, I think, singular among his countrymen here. He has ambitions which are perfectly legitimate perfectly natural, and landable in an intelligent and educated Chinaman. For my own part, I should have no objection to see a Chinese Member of the Legislative Council, a Chinese Justice of the Peace, to rank Chinese among my friends, to entertain them at my dinner-table, to accord them all the political and social privileges that I would. necord to other nationalities. I have no prejudice against them as a race; I recognise in them as a people many excellent qualities; I respect them us a great and ancient nation with long traditions, a copious literature, and a civilization both antique and unique, But, Sir, circumstances alter cases. The Chinaman who might be eligible for the official positions mentioned above in another and distant Colony, if naturalised as a subject of Hor Majesty, and sufficiently educated, is utterly disqualified here, because in the first place it is doubtful whether he would have the confidence of his countrymen, and because he would, more or less, be open to mandarin influences. Hongkong, Mr. Editor, is too close to the mainland too subject to the Chinese officials in Kwangtung, to allow of the natives here being admitted to any post where they would be placed in possession of information or power that might be used in a manner inimical to the community at large and the interests of the Colony generally. I know there are men of probity among the Chinese residents here who might be trusted to act fairly and uprightly, but a time might come when they would find the sorew so applied by the mandarius that they would be either compelled to do that which was not right or resign their posts. In fact, I quesand he ordered the gig to be lowered and sent tion whether there are six Chinamen in the > Then with regard to his statement that his countrymen have no status in European society. This is true, and for what reason? What class of natives flocked thither on the foundation European merchants could welcome to their houses and tables? Surely no one would dream of asserting that there were then any number of Chinese in the Colony of standing or respectability. The native community has improved since then, certainly, and I believe there are savaral small mandarins among the members of the Tung Wah Hospital Committee. But I very much question whether there are a dozen Chinese in Hongkong who would care to be entertained at European tables, or who have any ambition to Auglicise their manners. Of real Chinese gentry there are none in the Colony. The Chinaman is, I take it; the most conservative of the species homo; he remains, no matter what his foreign experiences may be, at heart a true Son of Han, and retains his old habits and manners, though he may be able on occasions reluctantly to nut thom on one side.

am not aware how the Chinese here are imposed upon, legislated against, or kept under As a political body they are unknown, it is true, and should continue to be so, so long as the place is not their home and their chief interests lie in China. Can they expect to be citizens of two countries? Do they forget that their own Government regards the British possession of Hongkong-with-the utmost antipathy, and would fain see every foreigner expelled from it? Do they forget that they are in a gigantic majority here, and if allowed to interfers in the administration might be expected to run counter to British interests? THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Parliament met yesterday, when the long expected explanation of the policy of the Governmont was made known in a message from the Queen and by speeches from the leaders of both Houses. The result seems to be extremely satisfactory to all parties except the Irish Home Rulers and the vagahoud obstructionists. The debute which ensued throws much light on the resent situation of the Eastern Question, and proceed to narrate what seems to me to be its precise and logical position. Russia, assuming to licrock the protectorate of the Greek Church in the Ottoman Empire, has perpetually sought o make Turkish misrule a protext for carrying out those schemes of aggrandisement which the Czars 1 ave notoriously cherished. There are two factors in the case, both reprehensible, doep rooted, and difficult to deal with one, Russian ambition under a clumsy, hypocritical mask ; the other Turkish misrule under the perpetual promise of reform and improvement. Thus Russia embarked on the Crimenn War, which ended in her defeat and in the Treaty of Paris. That Treaty is peculiarin this respect—it is not a convention between the two belligerents but between Europe on the one part and the twoassist Germany, and well knowing that England was determined to keep out of the struggle he availed himself of the opportunity of the prostration of France to violate the Treaty of Paris in so for as this clause limiting his ships A couple of gentlemen; recently returned from in the Black Sex was concerned. PACKET The United States' Mail Packet "BELGIC" will be despatched on MONDAY, the 11th March, with Mails for Japan, San Francisco. and the United States; which will be CLOSED 88 follows :--2 P.M. Registry of Letters ceases.
2.30 P.M. Post Office closes, but Letters (except for Non-Union Countries) may be posted on board the Packet with Late Fee of 18 cents extra Postage, until the time of departure. Correspondence for Non-Union West Indies (except the Bahamas and Hayti), Costa Rica, Honduras, Monto Video, New Granada, Paraguay, and Uruguay can no longer be sent by this route.

Many boxes of letters are received at the Pess. Office not sealed, that is to say, the box it fastened with scaling war, but there is no impression of a seal. The attention of boxholders is called to the necessity of carefully scaling such boxes with some recognisable seal, and of sonding a chitbook or receipt with them. The omission of the latter precaution leaves a doubt as to whether the contents of the box ever reached the Post Office: the omission of the former, as to whether part of them might not have been abstructed for the sake of the Postage Stamps: To provide means of remitting small sums f money to or from this Colony and between A REDUCTION is made on RETURN the Ports of China and Japan, the Postmasters and Agents of this Office will in future be allowed (but not required) to purchase Hongkoug Postage Stamps from foreign residents. Between Hongkong and Shanghai, or Hongkong and Yokohama, however in either direction.

Money-Orders must be used. The Stamps tendered for sale must not exneed $25 in value, must be perfectly clean, in need condition, and in strips of at least two, as go separate. Stamps will be purchased. They must be presented personally or accompanied Letters containing "Stamps should be registered, and the Stamps should be secured from observation. The Postmaster or Agent may postpone purchasing if the public funds in hand are not sufficient, and he will refuse to purchase in any case which appears doubtful or suspicious. He is allowed to charge a Commission of one per cent. on all Stamps purchased.

The attention of owners, agents, and charterers of steamers is drawn to the provisions of The Post Office Ordinance, 1876, which comes into force on the 23rd instant. Under the old Ordinance no notice was required of the departure of a vessel if not adverfised, nor of departures for Canton or Macao, Notice is now required of any departure, though with regard to sailing ships, the old rule will practically remain in force, that notice need not be sent unless asked for. Section XXV. requires that the first notice be sent to the Post Office: In the case of steamers plying regularly or on fixed days, notice of any change in the day or hour will be sufficient: Stamped correspondence may still be sent on board any vessel after the Mail is closed at the The Postmaster-General takes this opportunity of calling the attention of firms to the fact that any such words as Despatches will close at 11 A.M., added to the advertisement of a vessel are illegal. Consignees' letters are exempted by law from passing through the Post Office, but no person is allowed to make collection of such let. ters for transmission under a penalty of £100 per week during which the practice continued. Most countries to which Hongkong forwards Correspondence having joined the General Postal Union or being probably about to do so, it is necessary that the following rules be strictly observed. 1. No Letter or Packet, whether to be registered or unregistered, can be received for Postage if it contains gold or siver money, jewels, precions articles, or anything that, as a general -rule, is liable to Customs duties. 2.—This Regulation prohibits the sending of

THE NIGHTINGALE. A LESSON OF CONTENTHENT. A nightingale sang by a moonlight lake And the fairies and roses were wide awake, And the reschud sighed to a moonbeam pale Ah, but to sing like the nightingale!"

Rocked on the moonboams to and fro, The fairies were fleating high and low, -And as one hung at the resobud's side, "Ah, for the heart of a rose!" alse orled. The fairy yearned and the reached sighed,

While the nightingale and by the moonlit tide Bight up to God his singing went. For his heart was humble and well content.

HOW PORT WINE IS MADE. The vintage at the Quinta do Seizo was at its height, and a considerable number of hands were engaged in it. From the roomy terrace where the case, and lagares are situated one looks over a long flight of descending terraces of vines, dotted over with a score or two of vintagers, singing melodiously in a loudish key. Among them we detect many countonances the exact counterparts of the faces one meets in Slige and the wilds of Connemara.
